

March 2026

Please join us as we welcome,
Betsy Russell. She is currently a member of both the Midlands Native Plant Society and the Richland County Master Gardeners Association. She is a retired elementary school librarian, and beekeeper, where she had 2 hives for several years. She is currently attempting to make her yard more attractive to bees, both native and introduced, as well as birds. Come ready to learn, be inspired, and learn how you can help in your own gardens! 🌍🐝

RSVP

5440 Augusta Rd
Lexington, SC 29072

Sunday, March 15, 2026
2:30 PM

We hope to see you there!

MEMBERSHIP

Now accepting 2026 Dues!
Our yearly membership runs
January through December.
Please click on this link below to learn more!

Purchase Membership
HERE

Order Bee Packages and other
Store items below:

- 2026 Package Bees:
$125 Limited quantity, March
delivery
- 2026 Nuc's: $175 April
delivery

Purchase Your Bees
HERE

Upcoming Events:

- April LCBA Meeting - April 19, 2026, 2:30 PM at Lexington County Library
 - LCBA Table at Horse Sense Craft Event - April 25, 2026, 10 AM -3 PM
 - May LCBA Meeting - May 17, 2026, 2:30 PM at Lexington County Library
 - Lexington County Ag & Art Tour - May 30, 2026 at Locklair Farm Supply and Fire Barrel Farm
 - SCBA 2026 Summer Conference - July 16-18, 2026
When registering, type out "Lexington County Beekeepers".
-

March's Bless Your Hive Honeycomb Kitchen:

Honey Lime Fruit Salad

INGREDIENTS

4 cups - strawberries, sliced

3 - kiwis, peeled and sliced

1 cup - green grapes

1/4 cup - honey

1 - lime, juiced

DIRECTIONS

In a large bowl, combine the strawberries, kiwi and grapes.

In a small bowl, stir together the honey and lime juice.

Pour the honey-lime mixture onto the fruit and stir well.

Serve and enjoy!

Brought to you by the National Honey Board.

Join us on our members app to stay updated and keep in touch.

 Download & Join

This email was created with Wix. Discover More